V. Discussion Topics

No. 1: (Proposed by the Board of Directors)

Motion: The Company's proposal for requesting an underwriter to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement of securities in 2025 is hereby submitted for resolution.

Explanation: (I) The Company obtained approval at the Annual General Meeting held on May 28, 2025, to conduct a private placement within a total issuance limit of 75,000 thousand shares (including the number of common shares into which the privately placed domestic convertible corporate bonds may be converted based on the conversion price determined on the pricing date). The Board of Directors subsequently approved the pricing and places on July 18, 2025. The first tranche of the private placement of common shares was completed on July 31, 2025, with 63,370 thousand shares issued and the full subscription proceeds duly received.

(II) Pursuant to Paragraph 3, Article 4 of the “Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities”, where there is a material change in managerial control within one year before the Board of Directors resolves to conduct a private placement of securities and within one year from the delivery date of such privately placed securities, a securities underwriter shall be engaged to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement.

(III) The term of office of the Company’s 13th Board of Directors expired on May 23, 2026, and a full re-election was conducted at the 2026 Annual General Meeting. In accordance with applicable regulations, the Company has obtained the “Assessment Opinion on the Necessity and Reasonableness of Private Placement of Securities” issued by E.SUN Securities Co., Ltd. Please refer to Attachment 9 on pages 42 to 51 of this handbook.

Resolution: The voting results of the motion are shown as follows. The number of votes in favor of the motion exceeded the statutory amount, and the motion was approved. The results of the voting are as follows:

Total voting rights at the time of voting	Results of voting	Shares of voting rights of shareholders present (%)
257,146,585 shares	Number in favor: 246,446,136 shares (Voting rights exercised by electronic means: 11,958,461 shares)	95.83%
	Number against: 72,314 shares (Voting rights exercised by electronic means: 72,314 shares)	0.02%
	Invalid: 14,877 shares	0.00%
	Abstention/Did not vote: 10,613,258 shares (Voting rights exercised by electronic means: 2,727,406 shares)	4.12%

No. 2: (Proposed by the Board of Directors)

Motion: The Company intends to conduct a private placement of common shares and hereby submits the same for approval.

Explanation: (I) In order to replenish working capital, and/or expand plant facilities and acquire machinery and equipment to enhance the scale of operations, and/or repay borrowings to strengthen the financial structure, and/or meet other funding needs in support of the Company's long-term development, the Company intends to conduct a private placement of common shares in accordance with Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act. It is proposed that the private placement of common shares be conducted within a total issuance limit of no more than 20 million shares, and that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Board of Directors to proceed, subject to market conditions or the Company's operational needs, in one to three tranches at an appropriate time within one year from the date of approval by the Annual General Meeting.

- (II) Pursuant to Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act, the matters that should be explained for the private placement of common shares are set out in Attachment 10 on pages 52 to 55 of this handbook.
- (III) In accordance with Paragraph 3, Article 4 of the Directions for "Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities", if a material change in managerial control occurs during the period from one year before the resolution of the Board of Directors to conduct the private placement of securities to one year after the delivery date of such privately placed securities, the Company shall engage a securities underwriter to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement. The Company has obtained the Assessment Opinion on the Necessity and Reasonableness of Private Placement of Securities issued by E.SUN Securities Co., Ltd. in accordance with the regulations. Please refer to Attachment 11 on pages 56 to 66 of this handbook.
- (IV) The rights and obligations of the common shares issued in this private placement are the same as those of the common shares already issued by the Company; however, pursuant to Article 43-8 of the Securities and Exchange Act, the transfer of privately placed securities is restricted within three years from the delivery date. After three years have elapsed from the delivery date of the privately placed securities, it is proposed that the Board of Directors be authorized to obtain, at an appropriate time and in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, a letter of consent from the Taiwan Stock Exchange confirming that the listing standards have been met, and then file for supplemental public issuance and apply for listing and trading.
- (V) The number of shares to be issued, issue price, issuance terms and conditions, capital increase base date, project items, progress of fund utilization, expected benefits, and other related matters not specified herein in connection with this private placement of common shares shall be submitted to the Annual General Meeting for authorization of the Board of Directors to determine and implement the same, subject to market conditions and the Company's operational needs. If any amendment is required in the future due to the requirements of the competent authority or changes in objective circumstances, the Board of Directors is also authorized to make such amendments in accordance with the relevant regulations.

(VI) For this private placement of common shares, it is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Chairperson or his/her designee to represent the Company in signing and negotiating all agreements and documents related to the private placement, and to handle all matters in connection with the private placement plan on behalf of the Company.

Resolution: The voting results of the motion are shown as follows. The number of votes in favor of the motion exceeded the statutory amount, and the motion was approved. The results of the voting are as follows:

Total voting rights at the time of voting	Results of voting		Shares of voting rights of shareholders present (%)

VII. Other motions

No. 1: (Proposed by the Board of Directors)

Subject: Propose the lifting of the restrictions on the non-compete clause of new directors and their representatives for deliberation.

Explanation: (I) In accordance with Article 209 of the Company Act, “A director who, for his/her own benefit or for the benefit of another person, engages in any act within the Company’s business scope shall report the material details of such act to the shareholders’ meeting and obtain its approval”.

(II) For the newly elected directors of the Company and their representatives serving in positions at other companies, please refer to Attachment 13 on pages 70 of this handbook. Without prejudice to the interests of the Company, it is proposed to request the 2026 Annual General Meeting to approve the release of the non-competition restrictions from the date of assuming office, provided that the actual persons elected as directors and their representatives shall prevail.

Resolution: The voting results of the motion are shown as follows. The number of votes in favor of the motion exceeded the statutory amount, and the motion was approved. The results of the voting are as follows:

Total voting rights at the time of voting	Results of voting		Shares of voting rights of shareholders present (%)

VIII. Extempore motions:

Summary of questions raised by the shareholder holding attendance card No. 80000003:

- 1、The shareholder commented on the courage it takes for the Chairman to serve concurrently as Chairman of 14 companies while also serving as Chairman of Taiwan Mask Corporation. The shareholder looked forward to the Chairman's performance.
- 2、The shareholder requested that the Chair explain the Company's vision for operational development.
- 3、The shareholder stated, on behalf of other fellow shareholders, that the Company's share price had been unsatisfactory over the past two years, which had caused considerable harm to shareholders. The shareholder suggested that the Company eliminate underperforming investee companies. The shareholder further stated that there had been no improvement in the Company's core business, which was disappointing to shareholders. The shareholder also questioned whether it was appropriate for the management team to concurrently serve as managers of investee companies.
- 4、The shareholder suggested that the Chairman take decisive action to restore shareholders' confidence.

The Chairman and designated personnel responded as follows:

Chair's response: Since I assumed office, I have been actively restructuring the subsidiaries.

Taiwan Mask Corporation's performance in the first quarter of 2026 has brought an end to the gloom of the past six quarters. The management team will continue to work hard to create maximum value for shareholders. In addition, the employees of Taiwan Mask Corporation have all been working very hard. However, due to the Company's originally heavy burden, we ask shareholders to give the management team more time. We deeply apologize for not having met shareholders' expectations. In the future, Taiwan Mask Corporation will continue to work hard and reward shareholders through its performance in each quarter.

President's response: With respect to Taiwan Mask Corporation's strategic development, in addition to improving its financial structure through external fundraising, the Company is also gradually streamlining and strategically adjusting its investee companies. As for Taiwan Mask Corporation's core business, due to the impact of geopolitical factors, the Company is gradually shifting from the China market to other regions. In particular, progress in Southeast Asia has been very smooth, and the outlook is promising.

Chair's response: We thank all shareholders for their support and participation.

IX. End of meeting: At 10:12 a.m. on the same day, the chairperson announced the end of the meeting.

Remark:

1. The meeting minutes recorded the essentials and results of the meeting in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 4, Article 183 of the Company Act. The actual content, procedures and shareholder speeches during the meeting are subject to the audio and video recordings of the meeting.
2. Voting results: The percentage of votes in favor, against, invalid, abstention/not voting to the total voting rights of the shareholders present was unconditionally rounded to two decimal places, so there may be decimal differences, and the total percentage may not be equal to 100%.

Taiwan Mask Corporation 2025 Business Report

To begin with, I would like to express my appreciation to all shareholders for their support. In 2025, the global political and economic situation faced a high degree of uncertainty, and the macroeconomy was affected by geopolitical conflicts and other uncertainties. First, the imposition of reciprocal tariffs by the United States affected supply chain restructuring and also caused instability in the global economic order. The recovery of consumer markets has been slow, impacted by factors including the US-China trade conflict, geopolitical tensions, significant fluctuations in energy and raw material prices, and inflation. Meanwhile, the ongoing global AI boom continues to drive growth in supply chains related to logic chips, memory, application-specific integrated circuits, and advanced specialty packaging technology. Benefiting from rising global demand driven by the global AI race and strong demand for electronics and semiconductors, Taiwan's AI-related industries performed particularly well. It is estimated that the global semiconductor industry will continue to grow in 2026, but the growth momentum will mainly come from AI-related industries.

Under the US-China trade conflict, China has actively encouraged semiconductor industry self-sufficiency and localization, using subsidies and low-price competition to create an uneven playing field for non-Chinese suppliers competing against Chinese manufacturers; Taiwan Mask Corporation was impacted by China's policies, and its revenue from the China market was affected in 2025. Fortunately, the Company proactively and promptly adjusted its market strategy and deepened its relationships with customers in Taiwan and Southeast Asia.

With the joint efforts of the management team and all employees, Parent Company Only net operating revenue reached NT$3.615 billion in 2025, a decrease of 15% from the previous year. In addition, the recognition of operating losses of subsidiaries resulted in a net loss after tax of NT$1.174 billion for the current period. In response, Taiwan Mask Corporation has actively reorganized the Group's resources and formulated effective allocation plans. In addition to introducing new resources (including strategic investors and cash capital increase), improving the financial structure, focusing on the development of the photomask core business, and deepening relationships with key non-Chinese customers, it has also planned investments in AI-related photomask demand in line with the needs of key customers and commenced the deployment of 14-inch large-format photomask capacity. The Company has also prudently planned new capacity deployment in response to overall demand, while continuing to strengthen operational management efficiency, enhance customer service, and continue to grow together with key customers.

Looking forward, in response to market development, Taiwan Mask Corporation will continue in 2026:

1. Focus on the photomask core business, deepen customer relationships, and continue to meet the advanced process needs of key customers.

Actively expand photomask manufacturing services for 12-inch wafer fabs, improve the utilization rate of existing equipment, increase 55–90 nm manufacturing service offerings, introduce mass production of 40 nm photomasks, and gradually invest in the development of 28 nm photomask manufacturing technology and production services. It will also deploy 14-inch large photomask capacity in line with the advanced process needs of key customers to meet their demand for advanced process photomasks.

2. Build corporate competitiveness from the inside out

Through continuous process improvement, strengthen manufacturing management, introduce smart manufacturing and AI management systems, optimize operational management, and continue to establish a working environment in which employees can work with a sense of peace and fulfillment, retain key talent, deepen customer relationships, and build corporate competitiveness from the inside out.

3. Group strategic integration:

Focus on the photomask core business and conduct strategic integration of subsidiaries. Based on the competitive advantages of subsidiaries, appropriate plans will be progressively carried out, including but not limited to demergers, consolidations, or the introduction of strategic investors. Through synergistic cooperation and comprehensive resource management, the operating performance of subsidiaries will be enhanced in order to create more value and reward shareholders.

Best wishes to all valued shareholders.

Independent Auditors' Report

(115) Tsai-Sheng-Bao-Zi No. 25004946

- To Taiwan Mask Corporation,

Opinions

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Taiwan Mask Corporation and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the reports of the other independent auditors, as described in the “Other matters” section of our report, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and auditing standards generally accepted in Taiwan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Independent Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. Based on our audits and the reports of the other independent auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of fiscal year 2025. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the TMC Group's consolidated financial statements in fiscal year 2025 are stated as follows:

Recognition of sales revenue

Explanation

For the accounting policy on income recognition, please refer to Note 4 (30) of the financial report. For sales revenue, please refer to Note 6 (23); the operating revenue in fiscal year 2025 was NT$6,038,069 thousand.

- TMC Group is primarily engaged in the manufacture and sale of photomask products used in semiconductors and integrated circuits. As the Company has a large number of customers and a diversified customer base, and sales revenue is a major transaction item with a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements, we therefore determined this matter to be a key audit matter.

- How our audit addressed the matter

We have performed primary audit procedures for the above matter as follows:

1. Assess the appropriateness of the sales revenue recognition policy.
2. Assess and test the effectiveness of the design and implementation of internal controls relevant to the recognition of sales revenue.
3. Obtain the sales revenue detail schedule, select samples of sales transactions, and trace them to the relevant supporting documents to verify the occurrence and accuracy of sales revenue transactions.
4. Obtain and review the details of sales revenue, sales returns, and allowances for a period before and after the balance sheet date, and on a sample basis trace the transactions to the original supporting documents to assess whether any significant or unusual transactions, or material subsequent returns, have occurred.

Other matters - Sound operational improvement plan

As described in Note 12(4) to the consolidated financial statements, TMC Group's debt ratio and current ratio as of December 31, 2025 were 75% and 63%, respectively. TMC Group has formulated a sound operational improvement plan.

Other matters—Parent company only financial reports

We have audited the standalone financial statements of Taiwan Mask Corporation as of and for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, and have issued thereon an unmodified opinion with an Other Matter paragraph and an unmodified opinion, respectively, for reference.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the Audit Committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group’s financial reporting process.

Independent Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors’ Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC AS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit conducted in accordance with ROC AS, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also conduct the following undertakings:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicated with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit for the current period.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the 2025 consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore deemed key audit matters. We describe these matters in our Auditors' Report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our auditor's report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonable are expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Independent Auditors' Report

(115) Tsai-Sheng-Bao-Zi No. 25004755

- To Taiwan Mask Corporation,

Opinions

- We have audited the accompanying parent-only balance sheets of Taiwan Mask Corporation as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, and notes to the parent only financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

- In our opinion, based on our audits and the reports of the other independent auditors, as described in the Other matters section of our report, the parent only financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the standalone financial position of Taiwan Mask Corporation as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years ending on December 31, 2025 and 2024, in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers”.

Basis for Opinion

- We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and auditing standards generally accepted in Taiwan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Independent Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Separate Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of Taiwan Mask Corporation in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. Based on our audits and the reports of the other independent auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

- Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of Taiwan Mask Corporation of fiscal year 2025. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a standalone opinion on these matters.

- Key audit matters for the parent-only financial statements in fiscal year 2025 are stated as follows:

Recognition of sales revenue

- Explanation

- For the accounting policy on income recognition, please refer to Note 4 (27) of the financial report. For sales revenue please refer to Note 6 (21); the operating revenue in fiscal year 2025 was NT$3,614,813 thousand.

- Taiwan Mask Corporation is primarily engaged in the manufacture and sale of photomask products used in semiconductors. As the Company has a large number of customers and a diversified customer base, and sales revenue is a major transaction item with a significant impact on the standalone financial statements, we therefore determined this matter to be a key audit matter.

- How our audit addressed the matter

We have performed primary audit procedures for the above matter as follows:

5. Assess the appropriateness of the sales revenue recognition policy.
6. Assess and test the effectiveness of the design and implementation of internal controls relevant to the recognition of sales revenue.
7. Obtain the sales revenue detail schedule, select samples of sales transactions, and trace them to the relevant supporting documents to verify the occurrence and accuracy of sales revenue transactions.
8. Obtain and review the details of sales revenue, sales returns, and allowances for a period before and after the balance sheet date, and on a sample basis trace the transactions to the original supporting documents to assess whether any significant or unusual transactions, or material subsequent returns, have occurred.

Other matters

- As described in Note 12(4) to the standalone financial statements, Taiwan Mask Corporation's debt ratio and current ratio as of December 31, 2025 were 68% and 54%, respectively. Taiwan Mask Corporation has formulated a sound operational improvement plan.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the parent only financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the "Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers" and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of

- standalone financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

- In preparing the parent only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing Taiwan Mask Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate Taiwan Mask Corporation or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

- Those charged with governance, including the Audit Committee, are responsible for overseeing Taiwan Mask Corporation's financial reporting process.

Independent auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements

- Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC AS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, Individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

- As part of an audit conducted in accordance with ROC AS, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also conduct the following undertakings:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Taiwan Mask Corporation's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty

4. exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on Taiwan Mask Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report to the related disclosures in the parent only financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report. However, future events or conditions may cause Taiwan Mask Corporation to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within Taiwan Mask Corporation to express an opinion on the parent only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.
 - We communicated with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit for the current period.
 - We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
 - From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the parent-only financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our Auditors' Report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our auditor's report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonable are expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Taiwan Mask Corporation

Securities Underwriter's Assessment Opinion on the Necessity and Reasonableness of the 2025 Private Placement of Securities.

I. Introduction

Taiwan Mask Corporation (hereinafter referred to as “Taiwan Mask” or the “Company”), for the purpose of replenishing working capital, and/or expanding plant facilities and acquiring machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repaying borrowings to strengthen its financial structure, and/or meeting other funding needs in response to the Company’s long-term development, approved at the Board of Directors meeting held on March 12, 2025 a proposal to conduct a private placement of common shares or domestic convertible corporate bonds within a limit not exceeding 75,000 thousand shares (including the number of common shares into which privately placed domestic convertible corporate bonds may be converted based on the conversion price determined on the pricing date). The proposal was subsequently approved at the Annual General Meeting held on May 28, 2025, authorizing the Board of Directors to proceed, within one year, in one to three tranches, either by a single method or a combination of methods. Thereafter, the Company, by resolution of the Board of Directors on July 18, 2025, approved the issuance of 63,370 thousand new shares through the 2025 private placement of common shares for the purposes of replenishing working capital, repaying borrowings, and repaying convertible corporate bonds (including the early exercise of put options by bondholders), in order to improve the financial structure. The subscription price was NT$24.4 per share, and the total amount raised was NT$1,546,228 thousand. The private placement subscriber was LUMINOUS RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD. After the full issuance of the private placement quota, the subscriber's shareholding ratio in the post-private-placement paid-in capital was 20%.

Upon inquiry, Taiwan Mask Corporation had already received the full payment for this private placement on July 31, 2025, and also made material information announcements on the following day, August 1, following the Board of Directors meeting, regarding “Change of Representative of Institutional Director” and “Change of Chairperson”; however, the reassignment of the representative of such institutional director was not counted toward the number of changed seats. As the Company will conduct a full re-election of directors at the 2026 Annual General Meeting due to the expiration of the term of office of the 13th Board of Directors, there is a possibility of a change in management control at that time. Accordingly, pursuant to Article 4, Paragraph 3 of the “Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities” (hereinafter the “Directions for Private Placements”), which provides that: “Where a material change in management control occurs within one year prior to the board resolution for a private placement of securities and within one year from the delivery date of such privately placed securities, a securities underwriter shall be engaged to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement”, the securities underwriter was engaged to issue a supplementary assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the Company’s 2025 private placement of common shares (hereinafter the “Assessment Opinion”).

The content of this assessment opinion is solely for the purpose of Taiwan Mask Corporation’s subsequent supplementary reporting of this private placement to the Board of Directors and the Annual General Meeting, as well as for correction and upload to the private placement section of the Market Observation Post System (MOPS), and shall not be used for any other purpose. Furthermore, this assessment opinion has been prepared based on information provided by Taiwan Mask Corporation and various publicly disclosed information available on the Market Observation Post System. The securities underwriter shall not separately update this assessment opinion, nor assume any legal liability, for any subsequent changes in the Company’s private placement plan or any other events that may affect the content of this opinion.

II. Company Profile

Taiwan Mask Corporation was established on October 21, 1988, and was listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange on April 17, 1995. The Company is principally engaged in the research and development, production, manufacturing, and sale of photomasks, and provides technical assistance, consulting, inspection, maintenance, and repair services. The Company issued 63,370 thousand new shares through the 2025 private placement of common shares. After the full issuance of the private placement quota, the paid-in capital amounted to NT$3,168,491,830. The condensed consolidated balance sheets and statements of income of the Company for the most recent three years are set out below:

III. Underwriter's Assessment Opinion

(I) Assessment of Legality

The financial report of Taiwan Mask Corporation for 2024, audited and certified by independent accountants, showed a net loss after tax, and therefore is not subject to Article 3, Paragraph 1 of the "Private Placement Guidelines": "A public company that has net profit after tax and no accumulated deficit in the most recent year shall issue securities by way of public offering".

The private placement proposed by the Company was Approved by the Board of Directors on March 12, 2025 and by the AGM on May 28 of the same year, and the private placement subscribers and pricing were Approved by the Board of Directors on July 18, 2025. After reviewing the relevant minutes of the Board of Directors and shareholders' meeting regarding the Company's private placement, the issue price of the private placement of common shares was not lower than 80% of the reference price, with a subscription price of NT$24.4 per share, representing 80.03% of the reference price. Therefore, pursuant to Subparagraph 4, Item 4, Paragraph 1, Article 4 of the "Private Placement Guidelines", there was no need to obtain a reasonableness opinion from an independent expert regarding the basis for the pricing; in addition, the offeree selected by the Company for this private placement was the specific person LUMINOUS RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD., and upon review of the Board meeting minutes, the Company had fully discussed the method and purpose of selecting the offeree, as well as the necessity and expected benefits, in compliance with the Securities and Exchange Act and the relevant provisions of the “Private Placement Guidelines”.

Based on the above assessment, the Company’s private placement is in compliance with the “Private Placement Guidelines” and the requirements of legality.

(II) Assessment of Necessity and Reasonableness

The Company is principally engaged in the research and development, production, manufacturing, and sale of photomasks, and provides technical assistance, consulting, inspection, maintenance, and repair services. It has successively expanded the production capacity of key equipment for 65/55/40/28 nm processes and continues to invest in the development of advanced semiconductor process photomask technology; however, due to delays in the technology and product transformation progress of its subsidiary, the Company recognized operating losses of the subsidiary, resulting in a turnaround from profit to loss in 2024, with earnings per share falling from NT$1.75 in 2023 to (NT$2.21) in 2024.

In response, the Company has actively conducted internal reviews, reorganized Group resources, and formulated effective allocation plans, focusing on the development of its core photomask business. Externally, it has actively sought strategic cooperation with parties that have considerable understanding of the Company’s operations or industry development and can directly or indirectly benefit the Company’s future operations. Therefore, in 2025, it conducted a private placement of common shares and approached the specific person LUMINOUS RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD. to participate in the subscription, so as to obtain, through the offeree, direct or indirect assistance in the various management and financial resources required for the Company’s operations and in business expansion, thereby strengthening industry competitiveness and enhancing overall operating efficiency and long-term development; in addition, by choosing private placement of securities, which allows faster fundraising, the Company may also enhance the flexibility and efficiency of fundraising. Therefore, the Company’s private placement in 2025 is considered reasonable and necessary.

(III) Review of Material Changes in Managerial Control During the Period from 1 Year Before the Board of Directors Resolution on the Private Placement of Securities to 1 Year After the

Delivery Date of Such Privately Placed Securities

1. Within 1 year prior to the Board of Directors resolution on the Company's private placement (from March 13, 2024 to March 12, 2025), there were no changes in director seats;
2. After the Company's Board of Directors approved on July 18, 2025 that the private placement subscriber would be the specific person LUMINOUS RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD., and after full payment for this private placement was received on July 31 of the same year, the Company made material information announcements after the Board of Directors meeting on the following day, August 1, regarding "Change in Representative of Institutional Director" and "Change in Chairperson". The original director was the representative of You-Wei Investment Co., Ltd., Ming-Chung Chang, and the representative was changed to Chun-Kuang Tu, while the original Chairperson, Sean Chen, resigned. Accordingly, the Board of Directors elected Chun-Kuang Tu as the new Chairperson; however, the reassignment of the representative of such institutional director was not counted as a change in seats.

Thereafter, the Company will conduct a full re-election of directors at the 2026 Annual General Meeting due to the expiration of the term of office of the 13th Board of Directors. Accordingly, whether the positions will obtain a certain number of board seats within one year from the delivery date of the privately placed securities, and thereby result in a material change in management control, remains uncertain. However, considering that after the issuance of 63,370 thousand new common shares through private placement, the total number of issued shares will increase to 316,849 thousand shares, and the number of shares in this private placement will account for 20% of the post-private-placement total issued shares, under the circumstance where specific investors introduced through this private placement hold a certain shareholding ratio, the possibility cannot be ruled out that they may obtain seats on the Company's Board of Directors in the future, thereby resulting in a material change in managerial control. Therefore, pursuant to the "Private Placement Guidelines", the Company requested this securities underwriter to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement.

(IV) Assessment of the Selection of the Offeree and Its Feasibility and Necessity

1. Selection of the Offeree

The offeree for the Company's private placement is the specific person LUMINOUS

RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD., which can strengthen the Company's competitiveness and enhance operating efficiency and long-term development, and such offeree meets the qualifications of a specific person under Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act and the order of the Financial Supervisory Commission dated September 12, 2023, Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi No. 1120383220.

2. Feasibility and Necessity of the Offeree

The Company's primary consideration in selecting the offeree for this private placement was whether the offeree could directly or indirectly benefit the Company's future operations. The selected offeree can assist the Company in finance, business, production, technology, procurement, management, strategy, industry integration, and sustainable development. In addition, considering that privately placed securities can effectively ensure the timeliness of fundraising and enable the Company to quickly obtain operating funds, and that privately placed securities are subject to a restriction on free transfer for 3 years, this can further ensure a long-term cooperative relationship between the Company and its strategic investment partner, which will contribute to overall future operational development and strengthen the Company's competitiveness, thereby positively benefiting shareholders' equity. Therefore, the offeree for this private placement is feasible and necessary.

(V) Impact of This Private Placement on the Company's Business, Finance, and Shareholders' Equity

Taiwan Mask Corporation resolved to conduct a private placement of common shares in 2025. Pursuant to the "Private Placement Guidelines", it was assessed that there may be circumstances that could affect managerial control (please refer to the second paragraph of Point 1 of this assessment opinion). The following is an explanation of the possible impact of this private placement on the Company's business, finance, and shareholders' equity:

1. Impact on Company Business

Through this private placement, Taiwan Mask Corporation has introduced an offeree that can directly or indirectly benefit the Company's future operations, which can ensure a long-term cooperative relationship between both parties. With the capital injected through the private placement of common shares, the Company can not only meet daily operating fund requirements, but also use the funds to expand business with a view to increasing the Company's revenue and profit. Therefore, this private placement will have positive benefits for business and operations.

2. Impact on Company Finance

The funds raised by the Company through this private placement will be used to replenish working capital and repay convertible corporate bonds (including the early exercise of put options by bondholders), so as to improve its financial structure. Through the timely and effective capital injection from the private placement of common shares, the Company can reduce its debt ratio and improve its financial structure, which should have a positive benefit on the Company's finance.

3. Impact on Company Shareholders' Equity

After the full amount of this private placement is issued, the offeree will account for 20% of the total issued shares after the issuance, increasing the dilution effect on the shareholdings of existing shareholders, and there is also the possibility of a change in managerial control. However, after the proceeds from this private placement are received, the Company's available funding level will be enhanced, and its financial structure will also be improved. There will be greater opportunities to expand business and enhance operating performance, thereby improving the Company's shareholders' equity. Therefore, this private placement should have a positive effect on the enhancement of the Company's shareholders' equity.

(V) Summary

In summary, the securities underwriter has assessed that Taiwan Mask Corporation's proposal for private placement of common shares is necessary and reasonable with respect to its legality, necessity and reasonableness, the selection of offerees, and the impact on the Company's business, finance, and shareholders' equity.

Statement of Independence

- I. The Company was commissioned to issue a securities underwriter's assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of Taiwan Mask Corporation's (hereinafter referred to as Taiwan Mask) private placement of common shares in 2025.

Matters to Be Explained for Conducting a Private Placement of Common Shares

I.. Basis for and reasonableness of the private placement price:

1. The issue price of this private placement of common shares shall be determined based on not less than 80% of the reference price, and the reference price shall be determined based on the higher of the prices calculated under the following two bases:
 - a. The simple arithmetic average of the closing prices of the common shares for either 1, 3, or 5 business days prior to the pricing date, after deducting the ex-rights effect of stock dividends and the ex-dividend effect of cash dividends, and adding back the share price after the reverse ex-rights adjustment resulting from capital reduction.
 - b. The simple arithmetic average of the closing prices of the common shares for the 30 business days prior to the pricing date, after deducting the ex-rights effect of stock dividends and the ex-dividend effect of cash dividends, and adding back the share price after the reverse ex-rights adjustment resulting from capital reduction.
2. The actual private placement price and actual pricing date are proposed to be authorized by the shareholders' meeting to the Board of Directors for determination within the range of the resolution percentage, based on market conditions, the Company's circumstances, and the status of the selected investors. The basis for the above-mentioned private placement price complies with the provisions of "Notes for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities" and thus should be reasonable.

II. Method for selecting specific persons:

1. The subscribers of this private placement shall be limited to specific persons that comply with Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act, Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi No. 1120383220 of the Financial Supervisory Commission dated September 12, 2023, and the Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities. It is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Board of Directors to negotiate and determine such persons in accordance with the aforementioned laws and regulations. Future offerees to be negotiated and determined shall be limited to those willing to cooperate with the timing of the Company's working capital needs, those who understand the Company's operations, and those who are beneficial to the Company's future operations,
2. The Company has not yet identified the offerees. The tentative list of insiders or related parties who may participate in the private placement is as follows:

List of offerees	Selection Method and Purpose	Relationship with the Company
LUMINOUS RISE INVESTMENT CO., LTD.	An insider of the Company, with a thorough understanding of the Company's operations, helps strengthen the financial structure.	An insider of the Company

III. Necessary Reasons for Private Placement:

Private placement is a quick and easy way to introduce investors. Private placement of securities has transfer restrictions and can better ensure long-term cooperation between the company and investors. In addition, the Board of Directors, being authorized to determine the actual operational needs of the company to be fulfilled by the private placement, will also effectively improve the agility and flexibility of the Company's fund-raising.

IV. Use of funds and expected benefits:

The funds raised from each private placement are all used to replenish working capital, and/or expand plants and purchase machinery and equipment to increase the scale of operations, and/or repay borrowings to strengthen the financial structure, and/or support other capital requirements in response to the Company's long-term development. After completion of the use of funds for each private placement, it is expected to strengthen the Company's competitiveness and improve operational efficiency, promote the Company's stable growth, and benefit shareholders' equity.

Taiwan Mask Corporation

Securities Underwriter's Assessment Opinion on the Necessity and Reasonableness of the 2026 Private Placement of Securities

I. Introduction

Taiwan Mask Corporation (hereinafter referred to as “Taiwan Mask” or “the Company”), for the purpose of replenishing working capital, and/or expanding plants and purchasing machinery and equipment to enhance operating scale, and/or repaying borrowings to improve the financial structure, and/or meeting other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development, plans to hold a Board of Directors meeting on May 6, 2026 in accordance with Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act to approve matters related to the private placement of common shares in 2026 (hereinafter referred to as the “Private Placement”), and plans to submit a proposal to the shareholders' meeting on June 18, 2026 to discuss the issuance of common shares by way of private placement in an amount not exceeding 20,000,000 shares, with the Board of Directors being authorized, from the date of the shareholders' meeting resolution, to carry out the issuance at an appropriate time within one year, either in one tranche or in multiple tranches (up to a maximum of three tranches).

In accordance with Paragraph 3, Article 4 of the Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities: “If a material change in managerial control occurs within one year prior to the board resolution for conducting a private placement of securities and within one year from the delivery date of such privately placed securities, the Company shall engage a securities underwriter to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of the private placement, and such opinion shall be stated in the notice of the shareholders' meeting as a reference for shareholders in deciding whether to approve the proposal”. Accordingly, the assessment explanation of this securities underwriter is as follows:

II. Current Status of the Company and Details of the Plan for This Private Placement

(I) Financial Status of Taiwan Mask Corporation

Taiwan Mask Corporation was established on October 21, 1988, and was listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange on April 17, 1995. The Company is principally engaged in the research and development, production, manufacturing, and sale of photomasks, and provides technical assistance, consulting, inspection, maintenance, and repair services. Its paid-in capital amounted to NT$3,668,491,830. The condensed consolidated balance sheets and statements of income of the Company for the most recent three years are set out below:

(II) Details of This Private Placement Plan

The Company, for the purpose of replenishing working capital, and/or expanding plant facilities and acquiring machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repaying borrowings to strengthen its financial structure, and/or meeting other funding requirements in support of the Company's long-term development, proposes to conduct a private placement in accordance with Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act. The total number of shares to be privately placed shall not exceed 20,000,000 shares. It is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Board of Directors to conduct the private placement at an appropriate time within one year from the date of the shareholders' resolution, in one or more tranches (not exceeding three tranches in total). The issue price of the common shares for this private placement shall be determined based on not less than 80% of the higher of the prices calculated under the following two benchmarks prior to the pricing date:

1. The simple arithmetic average of the closing prices of the common shares on either 1, 3, or 5 business days prior to the pricing date, after deducting the ex-right price for stock dividends and ex-dividend price, and adding back the share price after capital reduction and reverse ex-right adjustment.
2. The simple arithmetic average of the closing prices of the common shares for the 30 business days prior to the pricing date, after deducting the ex-right price for stock dividends and ex-dividend price, and adding back the share price after capital reduction and reverse ex-right adjustment.

It is proposed that the shareholders' meeting authorize the Board of Directors to determine the actual private placement price and the actual pricing date within the scope of the resolution, based on market conditions, the Company's operational status, and the selection of investors.

(III) Review of Material Changes in Control Within One Year Prior to the Board of Directors' Resolution to Conduct the Private Placement

Within one year prior to the Board of Directors' resolution for the Company's private placement (from May 7, 2025 to May 6, 2026), although there were "changes in the representative of the institutional director and in the Chairperson" on August 1, 2025, the director was originally represented by Ming-Chung Chang of Guang Ju Holding Co., Ltd. (formerly known as You-Wei Investment Co., Ltd.), and the representative was changed to Chun-Kuang Tu. In addition, the original Chairperson, Sean Chen, resigned, and the Board of Directors newly elected Chun-Kuang Tu as the new Chairperson. However, the reassignment of the representative of such institutional director is not counted as a changed seat.

(IV) Review of Whether the Introduction of Specific Investors Through the Private Placement Will Cause Material Changes in Control

The Company expects to convene a Board of Directors meeting on May 6, 2026, to approve this private placement, and anticipates submitting it to the AGM on June 18, 2026 for discussion. Currently, there are no confirmed offerees. Therefore, whether the specific investors to be introduced in the future private placement will obtain a certain number of board seats to participate in the Company's operations and thereby cause material changes in control remains inconclusive.

However, taking into consideration that the counterparties to this private placement shall be limited to qualified investors under Article 43-6 of the "Securities and Exchange Act" and the Order No. Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi No. 1120383220 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on September 12, 2023, the Company currently has 366,849,183 issued shares. After the private placement of 20,000,000 shares, the maximum total issued shares will be 386,849,183 shares. The private placement shares are expected to account for approximately 5.17% of the post-placement total share capital. Given that the introduction of such qualified investors may result in them holding a certain percentage of equity in the Company, there is a possibility that they may obtain board seats in the future, which may in turn lead to a material change in management control of the Company.

In addition, the Company will undergo a full re-election of directors at the 2026 Annual General Meeting due to the expiration of the term of office of the 13th Board of Directors. After the re-election, whether there will be any change in the number of Board seats held by the newly elected 14th Board of Directors remains uncertain.

In summary, pursuant to Article 4, Paragraph 3 of the “Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities”, with respect to whether, during “the period from one year prior to the date of the Board of Directors’ resolution for conducting a private placement of securities to one year from the delivery date of such privately placed securities”, a change in one-third of the director seats occurred and caused a material change in managerial control, such company is currently unable to reach a definitive conclusion. Therefore, pursuant to the “Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities”, such company has engaged this securities underwriter to issue an assessment opinion on the necessity and reasonableness of this private placement.

III. Underwriter’s Assessment Opinion

(I) Assessment of Legality

The financial reports audited and certified by CPAs for Taiwan Mask for 2025 show a Net loss after tax of NT$1,476,965 thousand and accumulated losses of NT$320,925 thousand. Therefore, the Company is not subject to the restriction under Article 3 of the Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities that a public company whose most recent year shows net profit after tax and no accumulated losses may not conduct a private placement of securities. In addition, a review of the proposal materials for the Board of Directors meeting convened by such company on May 6, 2026 shows that the method for selecting offerees also complies with Article 43-6 of the “Securities and Exchange Act” and is limited to specific persons as provided in the order Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi No. 1120383220 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on September 12, 2023, and therefore remains in compliance with the relevant provisions of the Directions for Public Companies Conducting Private Placements of Securities.

(II) Assessment of Necessity

Such company is principally engaged in the research and development, production, manufacturing, and sale of photomasks, and provides technical assistance, consulting, inspection, maintenance, and repair services. Due to the impact of factors such as the poor overall environment and competition from China in recent years, and as the Company has actively disposed of investee companies in order to integrate the Group's resources and focus on the development of its core business, its revenue declined.

Such company is principally engaged in the research and development, production, manufacturing, and sale of photomasks, and provides technical assistance, consulting, inspection, maintenance, and repair services. It has successively expanded the production capacity of key production equipment for 65/55/40/28 nm and has continued to invest in the development of advanced semiconductor process photomask technology; however, its development pace was affected by delays in the technology and product transformation progress of its subsidiaries, and it recognized operating losses of its subsidiaries, resulting in accumulated losses in 2025. To ensure the Company's long-term operational development and enhance its competitiveness, it is indeed necessary to obtain stable medium- to long-term capital injection to maintain a sound financial structure. This private placement is intended to replenish working capital and/or expand plants and acquire machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repay borrowings to improve financial structure, and/or meet other funding requirements for the Company's long-term development. In addition to improving the financial structure, it will also help enhance overall shareholders' equity; furthermore, considering that private placement financing is nimble and flexible and can timely align with capital utilization plans, it is necessary for the Company to conduct this capital increase through private placement by issuing common shares.

(III) Assessment of Reasonableness

With respect to the private placement to be undertaken by the Company this time, this securities underwriter assesses its reasonableness from the following three aspects:

1. Reasonableness of the Issuance Procedures for the Private Placement

The Company's private placement this time is proposed to be approved by a resolution of the Board of Directors on May 6, 2026, and may only be undertaken after being submitted to the shareholders' meeting for resolution on June 18, 2026. Upon review of the relevant proposal discussion content, issuance procedures, determination of the private placement price, and the method of selecting specific persons, these are found to be in compliance with the Securities and Exchange Act and relevant laws and regulations, and there are no material irregularities.

2. Reasonableness of the Type of Securities for the Private Placement

The type of securities to be privately placed and issued by the Company this time is common shares, which is a type of securities commonly issued in the market and is highly accepted by investors; therefore, the type of securities for this private placement should be reasonable.

3. Reasonableness of the Expected Benefits of the Private Placement

In this private placement, the use of funds is to replenish working capital, and/or expand plant facilities and purchase machinery and equipment to enhance operating scale, and/or repay borrowings to strengthen the financial structure, and/or meet other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development. By raising funds through private placement, the Company is expected to bolster its available funding level and improve the Company's financial structure, thereby solidifying the foundation for sustainable operations, which will have a positive impact on the Company and its shareholders' equity, and the benefits are considered reasonable.

(III) Assessment of the offeree's selection, feasibility, and necessity.

1. Selection of the Offeree

Upon review of the proposal materials for the Board of Directors meeting to be convened by the Company on May 6, 2026, the offerees for this private placement are limited to specific persons meeting the requirements of Article 43-6 of the "Securities and Exchange Act" and the Financial Supervisory Commission Order Jin-Guan-Zheng-Fa-Zi No. 1120383220 dated September 12, 2023; however, the Company currently has no confirmed offerees.

2. Feasibility and Necessity of the Offeree

The primary consideration for the offerees of this private placement is whether they can generate direct or indirect benefits to the company's future operations. The selection of offerees is intended to assist the company in finance, business, production, technology, procurement, management, strategy, industry integration, and sustainable development. In addition, considering that privately placed securities can effectively ensure the timeliness of fundraising and enable the company to quickly obtain working capital, and that privately placed securities are subject to a lock-up period restricting free transfer for three years, this can better ensure a long-term cooperative relationship between the company and the offerees, help the overall future operational development, strengthen the company's competitiveness, and generate positive benefits to shareholders' equity. Therefore, the offerees for this private placement are considered feasible and necessary.

(IV) Impact of This Private Placement on the Company's Business, Finance, and Shareholders' Equity

1. Impact on Company Business

The funds raised from this private placement are to be used to replenish working capital, and/or expand plants and purchase machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repay borrowings to improve the financial structure, and/or meet other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development. With the timely capital injection through this private placement of common shares, in addition to meeting daily working capital needs, it can also be used to expand business with a view to increasing the Company's revenue and profitability. Therefore, this private placement should have a positive effect on business and operations.

2. Impact on Company Finance

The funds raised from this private placement are to be used to replenish working capital, and/or expand plants and purchase machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repay borrowings to improve the financial structure, and/or meet other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development. Under the timely and effective capital injection through this private placement of common shares, the debt ratio can be reduced and the financial structure can be improved, which should have a positive benefit for the Company's finance.

3. Impact on Company Shareholders' Equity

In consideration of sustainable operation and development, the funds raised from this private placement are to be used to replenish working capital, and/or expand plants and purchase machinery and equipment to enhance operational scale, and/or repay borrowings to improve the financial structure, and/or meet other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development. This will strengthen the Company's available funding level and improve its financial structure, while also creating greater opportunities to expand business and enhance operating performance, thereby increasing the Company's shareholders' equity. Therefore, this private placement should have a positive enhancing effect on the Company's shareholders' equity.

(V) Summary

In summary, Taiwan Mask intends to conduct a private placement of securities to raise funds for replenishing working capital, and/or expanding plants and purchasing machinery and equipment to increase the scale of operations, and/or repaying borrowings to strengthen the financial structure, and/or meeting other funding needs in response to the Company's long-term development. This will strengthen the Company's available funding level and improve its financial structure, while also creating greater opportunities to expand business and enhance operating performance. After considering the Company's current operating status, the timeliness and feasibility of fundraising, and other factors, this private placement is indeed necessary and reasonable. In addition, after reviewing the proposal materials for the Board of Directors meeting convened by the company on May 6, 2026, this securities underwriter found that the plan for this private placement of common shares, the issuance procedures, the determination of the private placement price, and the method of selecting specific persons remain in compliance with the "Securities and Exchange Act" and relevant laws and regulations, and no material irregularities were noted.
